Bhagwan Shri Birsa Munda: Cultural Renaissance in Tribal India, Their Heritage and Representation in Museums

Organised by Museums Association of India in collaboration with SAGAR (NGO)

 Date: 6th June, 2026

 Venue: Lecture Room – 1, Annex Building, India International Centre (IIC), 40, Max
Mueller Marg, New Delhi 110003

The Museums Association of India (MAI), in collaboration with SAGAR (NGO), is pleased to organize a National Seminar on “Bhagwan Shri Birsa Munda: Cultural Renaissance in Tribal India, Their Heritage and Representation in Museums” on 6th June 2026 at the Annex Building, India International Centre (IIC), New Delhi.

The seminar aims to commemorate the enduring legacy of Birsa Munda and provide a national platform for discussions on tribal heritage, indigenous knowledge systems, cultural identity, and the role of museums in preserving and representing tribal histories and traditions.

The seminar will bring together eminent academicians, museum professionals, anthropologists, historians, cultural practitioners, policymakers, students, and representatives from tribal communities to deliberate upon issues concerning heritage preservation, museum representation, and cultural inclusivity.

The event will feature inaugural addresses by distinguished dignitaries, keynote presentations, technical sessions, scholarly discussions, and a concluding Kavi Sammelan celebrating India's rich cultural and literary traditions.

Prominent speakers and experts from leading institutions including Indira Gandhi National Centre for the Arts, University of Delhi, and Rashtrapati Museum will participate in the seminar.

The organisers cordially invite scholars, researchers, museum professionals, students, and all those interested in tribal heritage and museum studies to participate in this important national seminar.
